

The Great Fire of London Homework Grid

Write a front page newspaper report about what happened during The Great Fire of London.

Samuel Pepys buried his cheese in the garden to keep it safe. Which special objects would you bury? Make a list.

Research items that would have been made in a bakery in 1666 and have a go at baking one of them.

Make a model of a fire engine using junk materials.

Make a fact sheet of the key events that happened during the Great Fire of London.

Imagine that you are living in London during the great fire. Write a diary entry about what happened to you.

Make a list of the reasons why the fire spread so quickly.

Create a collage or a painting of the buildings on fire.

Carry out some research to help you create an old map of London in 1666.

Create a quiz about what you have learned about The Great Fire of London.

Make a model of a Tudor house.

Design a board game about the Great Fire of London.

Complete at least a full line either horizontally or vertically.